

Gornal and Sedgley Intercessions for 26th October 2025

Please let Gail know of any people to be added, ensuring permission for praying publicly has been given, and when the time is right to take a person's name from the list.

A prayer for those who are unwell and who seek our prayers:

In the name of God and trusting in his might alone, may these whom we love receive Christ's healing touch to make them whole. May Christ bring them wholeness of body, mind, and spirit, deliver them from every evil, and give them his peace. Amen.

Prayers for those who mourn –

Gracious God, as we remember before you all who have died, surround us and all who mourn with your strong compassion. Be gentle with us in our grief, protect us from despair, and give us grace to persevere and to face the future with hope in Jesus Christ our risen Lord. Amen.

We Pray for All of The Following-

For all teachers and those who work in education, that this half term may be a time of rest and refreshment.

For Lisa Fletcher as she prepares to take up the role of Operations Manager

For Bishop Martin, Archdeacons Nikki and Mark and for Bishop Hugh Nelson and his family as he prepares to move and become the Bishop of Worcester

For the Diocesan Property team and all their efforts in maintaining clergy housing within limited budgets.

All who are isolated or feeling anxious.

For all suffering from war and conflict, especially Ukraine, the Holy Land and Yemen

The Government, all in Parliament and our Local Authorities.

For King Charles III and the whole Royal Family.

Our local Food Bank, Springs and those they serve.
